Nova Medical Centers Appoints Mark Neer as Senior Vice President, Network and Payor Strategy

Houston, Texas (January 26, 2016) – Nova Medical Centers announces it has appointed Mark Neer as SVP, Network & Payor Strategy. The appointment of Mr. Neer signals Nova's dedication to the payor market and focus on the company's expansion.

"As an exclusive, Occupational Medicine provider, it's exciting to have the unique opportunity to bridge the gap between the needs of the employer and the payor. Through Nova's proprietary Occuflex portal, we provide transparency in the delivery and treatment of injured employees while reducing the inefficiencies and delays in communicating the medical care delivered and also offer the value-based outcomes employers and payors demand," Neer said.

Neer has over 25 years of experience as a Senior Healthcare Management Executive in the healthcare industry with a record of success in strategic development. In his time at Nova, Neer has been responsible for network, payor, and managed care relationships along with strategic development nationally. He has utilized his skills to assist the organization with calculated direction for further expansion into new states and markets, most recently Indiana.

"Mark is a consummate professional who has brought an enormous level of knowledge and connectivity to the organization. With his continued leadership and expansion of our payor relationships, Nova will continue to grow as a leading national occupational medical provider," says Bruce Meymand, Chief Operating Officer for Nova Medical Centers.
